Why Should You Have A Personal Property Inventory?

There are a variety of reasons for needing to have a thorough inventory of the contents of your home and/or business. The number one reason is being prepared for a disaster.

If you are affected by a fire, burglary, tornado or other loss, an inventory will provide you with the ability to remember and prove what you own(ed).

Being able to remember is difficult when under the emotional stress of just having experienced a loss. A thorough written report - supported by a detailed album of photographs - will help you remember your belongings.

Being able to provide this information when filing your claim for high-end items is also beneficial because model numbers and, of course, photos substantiate your claim. The Insurance Institute states that those with an inventory settle their claims faster and are able to maximize their settlement.

Additional needs an inventory serves are:

- Financial planning
- Estate planning and settlement

An inventory will also help you:

- Determine if you have adequate insurance coverage
- Determine if you have items that should be scheduled for added protection
- Complete the claims process efficiently so you can recover quickly

Courtesy of Scott Wenclewicz Insurance Group, Hartman Inventory, LLC will provide a 15% discount off all residential and business personal property inventories. To receive this discount, please let them know I recommend you call.

Team Member Feature of the Month

Each year a team member gets to choose a charity and Scott Wenclewicz Insurance Group donates $250 towards that cause.

Sue Kramer

Which Charity & Why?

My charity is The HOPE Project located in Youngstown, FL. This organization does double duty for me. My husband and I are so grateful for the sacrifices our military offers our country. So when we heard about The HOPE Project we were excited!

HOPE brings healing to wounded warriors, veterans, first responders, and their families using horses (most of which that have been rescued from slaughter houses). We are also animal lovers, so HOPE is not only sharing a safe haven and a place of hope for our military, but also for the animals!
